

North Sound Youth Navigator Program

Serving school aged youth residing in

San Juan

Island

Skagit

Whatcom

Snohomish Counties

The North Sound Youth Navigator Programs goal is to improve access and coordination of behavioral health services for youth and their families who are experiencing challenges that impact the youths functioning at home, school, and within their community. They help youth and their families navigate the behavioral health system by identifying community resources and providing consultation through multidisciplinary teams.

For more information or to submit a referral please go to:

<https://ynp.nsbhaso.org>

North Sound Behavioral Health Administration Service Organization